Enjoying a highly sought after position on this well established Riverside development and commanding stunning coastal views to the rear taking in Sunderland Marina and Roker Pier, this four bedroom former "Show House" offers an exciting opportunity for those discerning families searching for a well maintained and spacious modern home by the coast.

Arranged over three floors, the property internally comprises:

Ground floor: entrance lobby, reception hall, shower room, utility and fourth bedroom/study.

To the first floor there is a living room with balcony taking in sea views, open plan dining room and kitchen with fitted appliances, whilst at second floor level there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Benefiting from gas central heating and UPVC double glazing, the property externally has a drive to the front with integral garage whilst gardens to the rear offer a maintenance free space.

Within walking distance of Sunderland's magnificent coastline, the property is well placed for good schools and is particularly convenient for Sunderland City centre, Sheepfolds and St Peters University Campus. Something quite special, this delightful home is sure to command a huge level of interest and should be viewed as a matter of urgency to avoid disappointment!
