

48 Dorset Road, Ashford, TW15 3BY

This very well presented, extended two double bedroom bungalow is perfectly located within walking distance of shops, the station, and parks. The property features an extended kitchen, a good size reception room, and a modern bathroom, providing a comfortable and contemporary living space. The addition of a loft room offers versatile extra space, suitable for storage or potential conversion.

Outside, the bungalow boasts ample off-street parking for at least three cars, a 30ft detached garage, and a good size garden, making it an excellent choice for those who value both indoor and outdoor space. This home is an ideal opportunity for anyone looking for convenient ground floor living without compromising on space. To view, call the vendors chosen sole agents, Aspen, on 01784 252202.
