13a New Park Road, Ashford, TW15 1EG

Situated on one of Ashford's most sought-after roads, this much larger-than-average extended semi-detached home offers exceptional space and versatility. Featuring two generously sized double bedrooms—including an impressively large master suite with potential to be divided into two rooms—this property provides flexible living arrangements perfect for growing families. The spacious kitchen and extended living room create a bright, welcoming hub for everyday life and entertaining, complemented by a convenient downstairs W.C. With well-regarded schools, popular shops, and scenic recreation parks all within easy reach, the location perfectly balances suburban tranquillity with accessibility.

Outside, the home continues to impress with a beautifully maintained rear garden, ideal for relaxing or entertaining during warmer months. A private access drive leads to a substantial parking area and an unusually large garage, offering ample storage or workshop potential. Additionally, the sizeable loft space presents further opportunity for expansion (subject to planning permission), making this home not only comfortable today but full of promise for the future. This is a rare chance to secure a property with such generous proportions and scope in a prime Ashford location. Call Alex White and his market leading sales team at Aspen estate agents.
