About

This attractive character end of terrace house is situated in a central village location and would make a great house for a professional couple or perhaps a professor at the university. It is available on a part-furnished basis (flexible). The property is very well presented and offers a homely feel and much charm. The accommodation comprises a living room with open fireplace, dining room, L-shaped kitchen/breakfast room which has French doors onto the lovely patio and rear garden, a downstairs bathroom and two double bedrooms. There is a gas central heating system to radiators and double glazed windows and the large rear garden is a delight! Available 3rd September 2019 EPC Rating: D.
