69a High Street, Chobham, GU24 8AF

A most attractive and interesting Grade II Listed two double bedroom first floor property with many character features including exposed timbers and beams and an open fireplace in the lounge.

With views to the front towards Chobham Church, this property dates back c.600 years and comprises of two double bedrooms, of which the double aspect master has an attractive vaulted ceiling and a range of built-in wardrobes.

The ceramic tiled bathroom is a most appealing room and features a stand alone roll edge bath and separate shower cubicle. The kitchen is well appointed with cupboards and worksurfaces, built-in oven and space for further domestic appliances. There are two separate reception areas ideally suited for a dining area and lounge area.

Externally there is one allocated parking space for this property.

The property is situated above 'The Bridal Cottage' and 'Chobham Flowers', with easy access to the village and its array of day-to-day shops, restaurants & pubs. The M25, M3 & A30 are within a few miles drive with direct routes into London. Woking mainline station has a direct line (approx. 25 mins) into Waterloo.
