17 Armstrong Road, Egham, TW20 0RW

This character two double bedroom cottage is situated in one of Englefield Green's popular residential side roads and benefits from a lovely rear garden, ideal for entertaining.

The living room is approached from the practical entrance porch and has a lovely fireplace and leads through to the good size dining room, which the central staircase affords some separation. The kitchen has a good size useful utility area off to the right, which also gives access to the rear garden and there is also a bathroom downstairs. Upstairs are two double bedrooms and there is potential for a loft conversion, which some of the neighbours have done.

The house benefits from gas central heating to radiators, double glazed windows and a 65' rear garden which has a good size shed at the bottom. This house would make a great first time buy or ideal for a 'downsizer'. EPC Rating: D.
