Offers In Excess Of £565,000 Freehold

Harmes Turner Brown are delighted to offer this beautifully presented and extended three-bedroom end-of-terrace family home, ideally positioned in a sought-after residential road in Lower Sunbury. Having been thoughtfully improved by the current owners, this superb property offers spacious, versatile accommodation ideal for modern family living.

The standout feature is the impressive 6-metre high-specification kitchen/breakfast room, complete with a central island, integrated appliances and bi-fold doors opening onto the rear garden, creating the perfect space for entertaining. The generous through lounge/dining room provides excellent living space, while the ground floor also benefits from a contemporary shower room. Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a stylish modern family bathroom.

The home has been extensively updated with a recently rendered, insulated and redecorated exterior, newly fitted carpets to the stairs and landing, a Vaillant boiler with Hive smart heating, and a fully boarded loft providing excellent storage.

Outside, the property boasts ample driveway parking, a detached garage offering excellent potential as a workshop, home gym or additional storage, plus convenient side access to the beautifully maintained rear garden. The garden features a generous paved patio, mature shrubs, fruit trees and a summer house, making it perfect for outdoor entertaining.

Further benefits include previous planning permission for both a loft conversion and side extension (STPP), offering exciting scope for future expansion.

Ideally situated within walking distance of six well-regarded schools, local amenities, Sunbury Walled Garden and picturesque riverside walks along the River Thames. Upper Halliford and Sunbury stations provide direct services to London Waterloo, while the M3, A316 and M25 are all easily accessible. Heathrow Airport is approximately 30 minutes away and Gatwick Airport around 45 minutes by car.
