27 Bridle Lane, Lower Hartshay, Ripley, DE5 3RQ

Price Guide £339,950

The beautifully modernised and extended period property was once a canal workers cottage (circa 1794) with the historic Cromford Canal passing by, now a protected nature reserve. The property forms part of the fascinating industrial heritage of the area and the historic transportation routes for the renowned Butterley Company.

Having a welcoming entrance porch, sitting room with feature fireplace, inner hallway with staircase off, open plan dining area which extends to the well equipped and beautifully appointed kitchen fitted with quality units, integrated appliances and separate utility room/ WC. To the first floor there is a gallery landing, three good sized double bedroom and a luxury bathroom with a four piece suite.

Benefitting from gas central heating fired by a Vaillant combi boiler and UPVC double glazed windows and doors.

To the front of the property is a walled fore garden. The lane in front of the property allows plenty car parking and extends to the rear of the property where there is a detached double garage and access to the south facing rear garden, which is mainly laid to lawn with a sunny seating area and a paved patio with pergola.

Lower Hartshay is a rural hamlet steeped in history, with a friendly local pub, many country walks, nature reserve and industrial heritage. Benefitting from easy access to the popular Market town of Ripley just 3 miles away and Belper 4 miles away, with schools, shopping and leisure facilities. There are excellent road and transport links with Ambergate railway station and bus routes to Nottingham and Derby via major road links ie A610, A38 and M1, whilst the A6, provides the gateway to the stunning Peak District and Derbyshire Dales.
