DIRECTIONS

Enter Cromford along the A6 and turn left onto Cromford Hill. Continue up the steep hill and turn left onto North Street where the property is situated on the right hand side.

Situated in the heart of Cromford, this is a picture perfect Peak District cottage steeped in local history, on the outskirts of Matlock, offering a wealth of local amenities. The property is a short distance from the main roads and boasts 796 square feet of living accommodation over three storeys featuring a lounge with log burner, dining kitchen with stunning original tiled floor, two good sized bedrooms on the first floor, top floor master bedroom and low maintenance rear yard with storage. Bathroom.

North Street is the earliest piece of planned industrial housing in the world. Surrounded by countryside, it is at the heart of a designated World Heritage Site. Cromford is an excellent location and the area is full of interest for those absorbed by industrial archaeology. You can also enjoy a visit to nearby Bolsover, Hardwick Hall and Chatsworth.

Viewing of this charming property is highly recommended.
