

West Street
Oldham, OL4 5AT

Offers over £215,000

A truly impressive two-bedroom period end-terraced property, offering a wonderful combination of spacious accommodation, original character and attractive period features throughout. Occupying an enviable end position, this distinctive home has been thoughtfully maintained and offers generously proportioned rooms, two separate reception rooms and the added benefit of a useful basement cellar. With its wealth of original detailing and versatile layout, the property offers a fantastic opportunity for buyers looking for a home with genuine character and individuality.

Ideally positioned close to the centre of Lees Village, local schools and a range of everyday amenities, the property also benefits from excellent transport links providing convenient access towards Oldham town centre and Manchester, while the surrounding countryside is within easy reach for those who enjoy scenic walks and the outdoors.

The property opens into an entrance vestibule, with the hall leading through to a welcoming lounge, featuring a beautiful fireplace, original cornice detailing and a wealth of period character. A separate dining room provides an excellent second reception space and features a striking marble fireplace alongside an exposed brick feature, creating a real focal point. The fitted kitchen completes the ground floor. To the basement is a useful cellar, providing valuable additional storage space.

To the first floor are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, together with a spacious bathroom fitted with a bath and separate shower, while a separate WC provides additional convenience.

Externally, the property benefits from a forecourt garden to the front, adding to its attractive period appeal. To the rear is a low-maintenance yard area finished with decorative stone, providing a private and easy-to-maintain outdoor space, ideal for sitting out and enjoying the warmer months.

This is a particularly appealing home that offers far more than might initially meet the eye.
