This charming two-bedroom traditional stone-built terraced property perfectly blends character features with modern living.

A welcoming, lounge full of traditional character, featuring striking exposed dark wood ceiling beams, neutral decor, and a feature fireplace with a decorative surround. The large front window is designed to perfectly frame those spectacular rural vistas. Beautifully updated, modern kitchen featuring elegant cream shaker-style cabinetry, wood-effect worktops, and contemporary black metro tile splash backs. The space comes equipped with a built-in modern black glass electric hob, a stainless steel sink overlooking the rear garden. Spacious double bedroom boasting an abundance of character with dark-stained original cast iron decorative feature fireplace. The room comes complete with a large, modern fitted wardrobe, large front window frames the same enviable, elevated countryside views.

Bathroom: A stylish clean bathroom suite with modern tiling and fixtures.

The rear gardens feature an open, unfenced aspect shared with the immediate neighbors, creating an spacious communal feel.
