Radwinter Avenue

This block is accessed through a secure entrance door, and where stairs can be found which lead to the second floor (top floor) which is shared with one neighbouring flat. Once through the front door, you are greeted by an entrance hall which leads to all other rooms. The lounge/diner is a great space, which measures 16'4 x 9'7 and a large window floods the rooms with natural light. The kitchen offers ample surface and cupboard space, as well as a large storage cupboard.

The bedroom comfortably fits a double bed and accompanying furniture, and the bathroom is a three-piece suite comprised of shower over bath, toilet and sink. The home is completed with double glazing in each room, a combi boiler fitted in 2024 and a smart meter for efficiency.

There is also a residents car park outside the block, where an allocated parking space can be found, and plenty of additional parking for visitors.
