Roche Close

Situated within the popular Ormond House retirement development, this well-proportioned ground floor apartment has been designed exclusively for the over 60s, offering comfortable, secure, and independent living. The accommodation begins with a welcoming entrance hall, complete with ample built-in storage. The spacious lounge/diner provides a comfortable living and entertaining space and leads through to a generous fitted kitchen. There are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, alongside a modern three-piece shower room. Further benefits include double glazing and electric heating.

Residents of Ormand House enjoy a range of excellent communal facilities, including a residents' lounge, laundry room, beautifully maintained communal gardens, and a residents' car park. An on-site manager provides additional peace of mind, whilst emergency pull cords are installed throughout the apartment. The development also offers the convenience of a guest suite, allowing family and friends to book accommodation when visiting.

Ormand House is situated in Roche Close, Rochford, just minutes from a variety of local amenities, bus links, and Rochford Train Station, making it easy to enjoy the town centre and excellent transport connections.
