

No Onward Chain * Set within the prestigious Conservation Area of Cambridge Road, Southend-on-Sea, this well-presented Victorian end-terrace house offers a delightful blend of character and modern living. Built in the 1870s, the property spans approximately 1,116 sq ft and features two reception rooms, three well-proportioned bedrooms and two bathrooms. As you enter, you are greeted by an attractive bay-fronted lounge with a feature fireplace and wooden surround, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. The spacious open-plan lounge and dining room features beautiful hardwood flooring, providing a seamless flow between the two areas. Impressive 3.4 metre high ceilings add to the sense of space and grandeur throughout the property. The modern fitted kitchen offers ample storage and generous granite worktop space, making it ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. Outside, the south-facing rear garden provides an excellent space for relaxation and outdoor enjoyment, featuring a patio area, well-maintained lawn, established planting and a decking area, perfect for summer barbecues or quiet evenings outdoors. A side alley provides private access to the front of the property, with useful additional storage space for bins and bicycles. Parking is also provided via a block-paved private driveway. Ideally located, the property is just a short distance from the seafront and benefits from excellent transport links, providing easy access to Southend City Centre. Local schools are also conveniently situated nearby, with Barons Court and St Bernard's approximately a 7-minute walk away. Southend City Centre offers a range of shops, restaurants and leisure facilities, all within easy reach. This charming Victorian home combines period character, spacious accommodation and a convenient location.
