Maldon Road

This well-proportioned semi-detached house is ideal for families, providing ample living space throughout. The property opens with an entrance hall leading into a bay-fronted lounge/diner, complete with a feature fireplace and access to the rear. A good-sized kitchen offers space for a breakfast table, while an inner lobby provides further access to the garden and leads to a three-piece shower room. To the first floor, the landing gives access to a large double bedroom, along with two further generously sized bedrooms and a two-piece WC. Externally, the home benefits from a generous rear garden with an outbuilding, ideal for storage or potential workspace. Additional advantages include double glazing and gas central heating.

Situated on Maldon Road in Southend-on-Sea, the property falls within the catchment area for Bournemouth Park Academy and Cecil Jones Academy. The location provides easy access to a range of local amenities, parks, and bus links. Both Southend East and Prittlewell Train Stations are within easy reach, along with the city centre, making this a convenient setting for commuters and families alike.
