Bear Estate Agents are delighted to offer for sale this two-bedroom detached bungalow, Glenmia, situated on Bournebridge Lane in the highly regarded village of Stapleford Abbots. Set on a generous plot, the property offers ample parking for approximately 5-6 vehicles, a large garage, and tremendous scope for improvement, including a potential loft conversion, extension to create a third bedroom, or simply enjoying the flexibility of the existing two reception rooms. The home benefits from excellent privacy, with mature borders surrounding the plot, and would suit a growing family or those seeking space and future potential. 0.21 Acres.

The location combines a peaceful countryside setting with the convenience of nearby amenities. Stapleford Abbots offers scenic local walks, open countryside, and a strong village feel, while Romford town centre is within easy reach, providing a wide range of shops, restaurants, leisure facilities, and rail connections into London. The area has seen positive local development in recent years and is considered to be on an upward trajectory, making it an attractive option for both owner occupiers and long-term buyers. Transport links are readily accessible, with Romford station and surrounding road networks offering practical connectivity to London and Essex.
