

37 Buckley Street, Stalybridge, SK15 1TT

Offers Over £190,000

A Wilson Estates are delighted to bring to market this spacious three bedroom semi detached home on Buckley Street in Stalybridge. Perfectly placed less than half a mile from the town centre, the location is ideal whether you're commuting into Manchester, looking for highly regarded schools, or simply want shops, green spaces, and transport links right on your doorstep.

Step inside and you're welcomed by a handy entrance vestibule leading into a cosy lounge. To the rear, the larger than average dining kitchen provides the perfect space for family meals or entertaining friends. Just off here is a bright little sun room – a versatile space that could serve as a home office nook or utility area. Sliding doors open directly onto the private rear garden, a lovely outdoor space for the warmer months.

The bathroom is conveniently located off the kitchen/diner, making the layout practical and family-friendly.

Upstairs you'll find three well proportioned bedrooms, offering great flexibility for families, guests, or working from home. From the rear bedrooms you can enjoy views across Stalybridge, including a fantastic view of the railway station platform – a real treat for children or rail enthusiasts who love watching the trains coming and going.
