

20 Inver Park, Lairg, IV27 4LN
Offers over £75,000

Excellent opportunity to purchase a one-bedroom end terraced bungalow, in need of modernisation, in the picturesque village of Lochinver, situated at the head of the sea loch Loch Inver, on the north-west coast of Scotland.

This home would be ideal for a first-time buyer or for someone looking for a retirement home.

The accommodation comprises an entrance hallway, lounge, bedroom, shower room and kitchen. There is garden ground to the front, side and rear. There are views from the garden towards the port.

Lochinver is a fishing port and a popular tourist destination located approximately 94 miles from the City of Inverness. It is set in the midst of the stunning west coast scenery on the NC500 route. This part of the Highlands is renowned for fishing, climbing, hiking trails and its remote sandy beaches. The village is a lively community with a post office, two supermarkets, book shop, gift shop and restaurant/hotels.

Ullapool is approximately 36 miles from Lochinver and has a wider range of shops and services, swimming pool and fitness centre, museum, library, golf course, arts centre, restaurants and hotels. Ferries operate from Ullapool to Stornoway on the Isle of Lewis in the Outer Hebrides.
