LOCATION

Situated in a peaceful development in a very desirable area, Roseburn House is conveniently set in a tranquil spot tucked away in Murrayfield. The property is a short walk from local shops on Roseburn Terrace and is also within easy reach of the more extensive amenities of Corstorphine and the West End. At the end of the road is Roseburn Park, which has stunning open spaces and woodlands of Corstorphine Hill Nature Reserve which are within easy reach. Murrayfield Tram Stop is approximately 0.2 miles away adjacent to the world-famous rugby stadium, which can be seen from the property. A good selection of bus routes run along Corstorphine Road and offer direct access into the Centre of town and Haymarket train station. For the motorist, the A8 leads to the City Bypass and associated motorways as well as Edinburgh International Airport.
