Overall Description

This semi-detached house sits in a slightly elevated position in a pleasant child-friendly residential location. The house has three bedrooms and a bathroom upstairs while on the ground floor is the entrance hall, sitting room with open fireplace, kitchen/dining room, utility/rear porch and downstairs cloakroom. The property is double-glazed and has gas central-heating. There is a private driveway and scope to add extra parking in the front garden should that be desired. The back garden is large and there is scope to further extend the property (subject to the usual consents). If you are looking for an excellent family home with lots of potential then why not book a viewing at the Open House from 10am to 11am on Saturday 8th November. The property is being sold with no chain.

Location

This property sits in a quiet residential location in the town of Strood, just north of the Medway and a short drive from Rochester and Chatham. The house has an Asda Express in a nearby petrol station and there are further High Street and other shops, supermarkets and other amenities in the centre of town, a short drive away. There are schools at all levels in the immediate area including the Elaine Primary School, Chrubs Montessori, the Abbey Court School and the Gordons Children's Academy. The Rede Common Nature Reserve is just up the road and other local green spaces include the Northcote Road Recreation Ground. Strood railway station gives regular commuter services to London St Pancras and there are excellent bus services locally.
