Overall Description

This is a link-detached and surprisingly spacious bungalow down the end of a quiet cul-de-sac in the middle of the popular village of Hertford Heath. The property has an entrance hall, three good-sized bedrooms, a bathroom, separate cloakroom, large sitting/dining room and kitchen. It has gas fired central heating, double-glazed windows and a garage to the side - and there is potential for extending the property either to the rear, or into the garage, under permitted development rights, should you so wish (subject to the usual consents). The front garden has a private driveway and the back garden is large and private. The property is being sold with no chain and a Guide Price Range of £475,000-£500,000. We have an Open House booked from 11.30am to 12.30pm on Saturday 11th April, so please call to book a viewing.

Location

The property sits down a quiet tucked-away cul-de-sac in the popular village of Hertford Heath, just a mile or two from Hertford and close to the A10. The village is a thriving local community (see the excellent village web site www.hertfordheath.gov.uk) with good local facilities including village shop, village hall, church, garage, three good pubs, and plenty of sports and social clubs including the village playing fields. The village is a short drive from Hertford's two railway stations (with regular trains to London) as well as the A10, so it is an ideal location for commuters. There are very good schools in the local area - the excellent Hertford Heath JMI is just down the road from the house and the village is also the home of the Haileybury Public School. The property also sits within the sought-after SG13 catchment area, so perfect for families wishing to send their children to the better local schools (Simon Balle, Richard Hale and Presdales). The historic town of Hertford has a very good range of local facilities including shops, restaurants, supermarkets, as well as the newly upgraded Theatre and Castle with its pretty gardens. The village is surrounded by some very beautiful countryside and there are plenty of footpaths nearby from which to enjoy it.
