Overall Description

This is a pleasant shared ownership property in an excellent central location close to transport links and local amenities. This property is an ideal starter home for those wanting to get on the property ladder as you own 70% of the property and pay a rental fee for the extra 30%. To qualify to be able to buy this property you need to pass certain criteria to be eligible, so please do speak to us for further details. The property has a lovely open-plan downstairs living space with sitting/dining room at one end and kitchen at the other, with a stable door out to the garden. A spiral staircase leads upstairs, where there are two bedrooms and a shower room. The property has double-glazed windows and gas central-heating. There is a very good-sized 70' garden to the rear with a shared right of way over the garden and down a pathway to the side back to the front. This property is being sold with no onward chain, so please do call to book a viewing at your convenience.

Location

The property sits in a popular residential area of Hoddesdon, conveniently located for the A10 and Rye House Station (with regular services to London) and with a handy row of local shops including a petrol station with mini supermarket, just up the road. Hoddesdon has a bustling high street, a short walk away, with a wide selection of High Street and specialist shops, supermarkets, pubs and restaurants. There are good schools at all levels in the area including the Forres Primary School and the John Warner Secondary School. Hoddesdon sits in the Lea Valley so is near to lakes and gravel pits offering leisure activities including fishing and sailing, whilst the town is close to some beautiful Hertfordshire countryside including Broxbourne Woods, which is Hertfordshire's only National Nature Reserve.
