Overall Description

This is a spacious 1960's townhouse with sea views from the top two floors, in a pleasant residential location, a short walk from the station and beach. The house has three bedrooms and a shower room on the top floor, with a fourth bedroom or office on the ground floor opposite the cloakroom. The middle floor has the kitchen and the large open-plan sitting/dining room with a large picture window taking full advantage of the sea views. The property has a private driveway with parking for two cars to the front, as well as a garage with electric roller door. The back garden has been attractively landscaped and is surprisingly private. The property has double-glazed windows, modern electric wall-mounted heaters with separate thermostat controls for each and is in good decorative order, although it does give buyers the opportunity to modernise to their own style and tastes. This pleasant family home is being sold with no onward chain.

Location

This property sits in a pleasant residential location just a short walk from the town centre, with its range of shops and other facilities, which includes the railway station (to London Fenchurch Street via Basildon). Further shops, supermarkets and other amenities are to hand in neighbouring Southend-on-Sea. There are good schools in the local area including the Friars Park Primary School and Nursery, the St George's Catholic Primary School and the Shoeburyness High School. The house is also a five minute walk from East Beach with its parkland, kids play area and cafe (not to mention the kite surfing club) making it a pleasant family-friendly location to live, with plenty of coastal and inland walks to hand too. There is an indoor swimming pool at Shoebury Leisure Centre and other local parks closeby, including Friars Park, Shoebury Park and Gunners Park (a nature reserve and Site of Special Scientific Interest), making this an ideal location for active families.
