Overall Description

This 1950's terraced house sits in a pleasant residential location a short walk from excellent schools, so is ideal for family buyers looking for a property to make a long term home. The property has three bedrooms, a bathroom and cloakroom on the first floor while downstairs is the entrance hall, two receptions, kitchen and utility/boot room with second door to the front. The house has gas central-heating with a Worcester boiler and double-glazed windows and is in good decorative order, although it also offers buyers the scope to make alterations and improvements - such as a rear kitchen/dining room extension as other have locally - should they so wish (subject to the usual consents). This property is being sold with a Guide Price Range of £350,000-£375,000 and we have an Open House organised from 10am to 11am on Saturday 15th August so please call to book a time slot.

Location

This property is located in a family-friendly location in Gadebridge on the north western corner of Hemel Hempstead. There are excellent schools just a short walk away including the Gade Valley Primary School, the Collett School, the Sir Cuthbery Mayne Catholic Primary School, the Locker's Park Preparatory School and the Laureate Academy. Spring Fields Park is just across the road and is a popular, dog-friendly open space featuring a scenic trail, two children's play areas, and a large open field with a distinctive half-pipe shape (called "The Dip") that makes it a favourite for local sledding in the winter. There is a Co-Op and Tesco Express just a short drive away and the centre of town has a wide range of High Street shops and other amenities. The town has plenty of sporting and leisure facilities for a growing family and is surrounded by beautiful Hertfordshire countryside for keen cyclists or walkers.
