Overall Description

This Edwardian semi-detached property has been extended and modernised over the years and is now a spacious and very well-presented family home, in a quiet residential location, close to local parks, schools and the all-important railway station, so a perfect place for busy professionals wanting to bring up a family in popular Tunbridge Wells. The accommodation is set out over four floors with four bedrooms and two bathrooms (one an en-suite) on the top two floors. The sitting room and kitchen/dining room are on the ground floor, while the basement comprises the family room (or bedroom five should you wish) with French doors opening onto the patio, as well as the downstairs cloakroom. There is a driveway with parking for two cars to the front and a large garden to the rear that has been attractively landscaped. This has been a much loved and practical family home for the owners, who are now moving location to be nearer their family, so early viewing is highly recommended.

Location

This superb Edwardian family home sits in a pleasant residential location, just a short walk from local parks, schools and transport links, including the High Brooms railway station with regular services to Charing Cross, central Tunbridge Wells and Hastings, making this an ideal property for busy commuters working in the City and West End. Excellent local schools include the St Johns C of E Primary School, Skinners Primary School and the Tunbridge Wells Grammar School. Tunbridge Wells has excellent shops and other amenities including the boutique shops, live music venues and amazing restaurants of the Pantiles as well as the Royal Victoria Place Shopping Centre, with its great variety of shops, bars and cafes. There are plenty of family friendly green spaces close by, with the High Brooms playground and park directly behind the property, Grosvenor and Hibert Park (with its skate park, woods and recreation ground) within walking distance and Tunbridge Wells Common, with its 250 acres of open green spaces. The road links are good, with the A21 and A26 making the property easily accessible from the M25, Channel Tunnel and both Gatwick and Heathrow.
