Offered for sale is this four-bedroom terraced family home, nestled on the charming Stainer Road in a quiet cul-de-sac just off Theobal Street. Built in 1976 and extending to approximately 979 sq ft, the property offers generous and versatile living space.

The accommodation comprises two well-proportioned reception rooms, providing flexible space for everyday living and entertaining. The layout is practical and well balanced, offering a comfortable and functional living environment. There are four bedrooms in total, suitable for family occupation or for those requiring additional space such as a home office. The property is further complemented by two bathrooms, offering added convenience.

Externally, the house benefits from off-street parking and a low-maintenance rear garden with a south-easterly aspect, allowing for good natural light.

The location offers convenient access to a number of major road links, including the A1, M1 and M25, along with local bus routes. Borehamwood Thameslink station is easily accessible and provides regular services into Central London. A range of local amenities, schools and green spaces can also be found nearby.
