LOCATION

Hogg Lane is one of the oldest street scenes in the village and runs between School Lane and Godmans Lane, close to the church and a variety of shops/amenities that the village affords. The property is located in the conservation area amongst many homes of distinction and character. Kirk Ella is one of the regions most sought after villages which has a range of amenities with more extensive facilities to be found in the neighbouring villages. The well reputed junior school of St Andrews is on Mill Lane and Kirk Ella lies within the Wolfeaton catchment area with public schooling also available at nearby Hessle Mount, Tranby or Hymers College. Good road connected lead to Hull City Centre to the east and in a westerly direction through the village network to the A63/M62 motorway network.
