INTRODUCTION

This well presented three bedroom house on Lawton Walk in Hessle is well-suited to a growing family or those looking for a little more space. Occupying a plot on the fringe of the recently constructed David Wilson Homes development off Jenny Brough Lane in Hessle, the property is within reach of the village's broad offering of amenities.

The accommodation briefly comprises a kitchen/diner, lounge and W.C. on the ground floor, with three bedrooms, an en-suite and family bathroom on the first floor. French doors from the kitchen open out to a paved patio in the garden to the side of the property, which is walled to one side. A path continues beside lawn to an additional paved patio at the far end of the garden. The front of the property is lawned, with a picket fence lining the boundary to the walkway. The plot also benefits from two allocated parking spaces to the side of the property on the Maxstead Way cul-de-sac.

Presenting a contemporary feel throughout and in such a great location, viewing at this property is highly recommended.

LOCATION

The property is located on Lawton Walk, a pedestrian promenade between Greenfield Avenue and Broad Avenue on the recently built David Wilson development off Jenny Brough Lane in Hessle. Hessle is a vibrant and historic small town situated on the north bank of the Humber, famed for the iconic Humber Bridge. It offers an exceptional quality of life, celebrated for its unique character, bustling town square and parades together with the picturesque Hessle Foreshore. This close-knit community atmosphere blends perfectly with the array of amenities making this an ideal place to live.

The heart of the town, centred around "The Weir" and the Square, is home to an eclectic mix of independent boutiques, popular cafés, and traditional pubs together with many well-known brands/names. For broader shopping needs, the nearby Sainsbury's superstore and retail parks are easily accessible, while the Country Park and Foreshore are a perfect place for walking, cycling, and leisure.

The town is served by well-regarded primary schools, including Hessle All Saints and Peshurst Primary. Hessle High School and Sixth Form College offers secondary education while the proximity to independent schools such as Tranby School and Hymers College ensure diverse educational opportunities for all ages.

Hessle provides superb regional connectivity, acting as a primary gateway for the region. The town features its own railway station with frequent services to Hull, Doncaster, and Sheffield, as well as easy connections to London. Strategically located along the A63, it offers immediate access to Hull and the M62 corridor, while the Humber Bridge provides a direct link to North Lincolnshire and beyond including Humberside Airport.

Accessibility to key destinations includes:

- Hull City Centre: Approx. 5 miles
- Beverley (Historic Market Town): Approx. 9 miles
- York: Approx. 38 miles
- Leeds: Approx. 55 miles

Beyond the immediate vicinity, the location offers unparalleled access to the beauty of the East Riding countryside. The nearby Yorkshire Wolds present a stunning landscape of peaceful walking trails and traditional villages. This area is perfect for outdoor enthusiasts, offering easy exploration of the coast, including the dramatic clifftops and sandy beaches. The thriving market town of Beverley is nearby with the attraction of York still convenient yet a little more distant.
