INTRODUCTION

Offers invited between £325,000 to £345,000.

Beech Hill Cottage is a distinctive "landmark" property, occupying a prominent position at the entrance to the highly desirable village of Swanland, at the junction of Occupation Lane and Beech Hill Road. With open fields adjoining to one side and opposite, within a generous plot of approximately 0.28 acre, the property presents an exciting opportunity for those seeking a home with character, individuality and further potential.

Ready to move straight into, the accommodation is arranged over two floors and currently comprises three reception rooms, a fitted kitchen and downstairs W.C., with three bedrooms and a feature bathroom to the first floor. Gas-fired central heating to radiators and uPVC framed double glazing are installed.

Parking is available to both sides of the property, with a gated entrance opening into the garden and a further driveway providing access to a very useful outbuilding. The generous plot extends to approximately 0.28 acre, being predominantly lawned and interspersed with numerous mature trees, some of which are protected by Tree Preservation Orders.

The size and configuration of the plot provides considerable scope to extend, remodel or further enhance the property over time, subject of course to any necessary planning and other consents. With its prominent village setting, generous grounds and exciting potential, Beech Hill Cottage is a particularly interesting and attractive proposition.

LOCATION

Swanland is widely regarded as one of the most prestigious and picturesque villages in the East Riding of Yorkshire. Situated on the edge of the Yorkshire Wolds, it offers a refined residential atmosphere around a quintessentially English village pond. Alongside the nearby villages of North Ferriby and Kirk Ella, Swanland remains one of the most desirable addresses for discerning homeowners in the region.

The village maintains a charming feel while providing easy access to high-end local services. Residents benefit from a range of amenities, including a traditional village pub serving food, a chemist, and convenience store with a post office. For more extensive retail needs, the nearby Anlaby Retail Park and Willerby shopping park are just a short drive away. The community-centric village hosts numerous events, contributing to the vibrant social fabric that defines local life. There is also a tennis and bowls club plus a recreational park with children's play area.

A significant advantage for families is the proximity to top-tier education. The village is home to the outstanding Swanland Primary School, consistently recognized for its academic excellence. For secondary education, the village falls within the catchment for the highly regarded South Hunsley School and Sixth Form College. Prestigious independent options, including Hymers College, Tranby, and Pocklington School, are also within easy reach.

Swanland provides superb regional connectivity for those who value a tranquil setting with quick access to the A63, which connects directly to the M62 motorway network and Hull city centre. For rail travel, the nearby stations at North Ferriby and Brough provides services to Hull, Leeds, and beyond, ensuring excellent links for commuters.

Accessibility to key destinations includes:

- Hull City Centre: Approx. 7 miles
- Beverley (Historic Market Town): Approx. 10 miles
- York: Approx. 34 miles
- Leeds: Approx. 54 miles

Beyond the immediate vicinity, the location offers unparalleled access to the beauty of the East Riding countryside. The nearby Yorkshire Wolds present a stunning landscape of peaceful walking trails and traditional villages. This area is perfect for outdoor enthusiasts, offering easy exploration of the coast, including the dramatic clifftops and sandy beaches. The thriving market town of Beverley is nearby with the attraction of York still convenient yet a little more distant.

PROGRESSING AN OFFER

In order to progress an offer we are required by law to conduct anti-money laundering checks on all potential buyers. In line with HMRC guidelines, we ask Lifetime Legal, in this respect to carry out these checks. Once your offer is accepted in principle (subject to contract) they will send a secure link to complete the biometric checks electronically. This process incurs a non-refundable fee of £48 including VAT and Lifetime Legal will handle the payment for this service direct with you. Once these checks are completed, and you have provided all evidence of funding requested along with your solicitors details, we will then issue the Memorandum of Sale to the solicitors in order for the conveyancing to commence.
