INTRODUCTION

This fabulous detached period property is beautifully appointed and ideal for a growing family. Having been thoughtfully remodelled and stylishly presented in recent times, this wonderful home stands in lovely landscaped grounds of around a third of an acre which enjoys a south facing rear aspect. A gated entrance opens to an expansive driveway and double garage. The accommodation extends to around 2,600sq.ft. across two floors with a combination of separate rooms and open plan living spaces complimented by an array of stylish modern fittings. Features include an impressive entrance reception with oak framed porch to the side, formal lounge, play/games room and an outstanding open plan living kitchen and dining area with bi fold doors opening out to the garden. There is also a separate study/sitting room and a utility room. Upon the first floor are three en-suite bedrooms in addition to a fourth bedroom served by a separate bathroom. This is undoubtedly a unique property of great appeal and early viewing is strongly recommended.

LOCATION

The property stands proudly on the south side of Main Road, Gilberdyke. The sister villages of Gilberdyke and Newport offer a desirable residential experience on the western edge of the East Riding. Often considered one cohesive community, they provide an exceptional quality of life distinguished by a friendly, village-scale atmosphere and expansive rural surroundings. Together, they offer a perfect environment for families and professionals who value the tranquillity of the countryside while remaining part of a vibrant local network.

A variety of local services ensure that residents enjoy a high standard of living with everyday essentials right on the doorstep. The villages are well-equipped with a local supermarket, independent shops, and traditional pubs. For more extensive retail and leisure needs, the comprehensive amenities of Brough or Howden are just a short drive away, offering a wider array of supermarkets, fitness facilities, and professional services, providing a perfect balance of village peace and modern convenience.

The community is served by two well-regarded primary schools: Gilberdyke Primary School and Newport Primary School. For secondary education, the area is perfectly positioned for access to the highly regarded South Hunsley School and Sixth Form College in Melton or the well-respected Howden School. Furthermore, additional independent schooling options are within easy reach, ensuring diverse academic pathways for all students.

Gilberdyke and Newport provide superb regional connectivity, making them some of the best-connected rural locations in the county. The villages sit immediately adjacent to the M62 corridor, providing a direct link to Hull, Leeds, and the national motorway network. Furthermore, Gilberdyke features its own railway station, offering regular services to Hull, Leeds, Doncaster, and Manchester – a significant advantage for professional commuters.

Accessibility to key destinations includes:

- Howden: Approx. 5 miles
- Beverley: Approx. 16 miles
- Hull City Centre: Approx. 18 miles
- York: Approx. 22 miles
- Leeds: Approx. 40 miles

Beyond the immediate vicinity, the location offers immediate access to the East Riding countryside. Positioned within the fertile landscapes, the area is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts. This blend of community spirit and strategic transport links truly encapsulates the best of East Yorkshire life.
