Beautiful materials and quality finishes feature throughout, complemented by excellent levels of energy efficiency for cost-effective day-to-day living. The spacious entrance hallway opens through sliding doors into a spectacular living room having bi-fold doors connecting seamlessly to the westerly facing rear garden. There is a dining area, again with bi fold doors which also has an open link to the extensively fitted kitchen with island unit completes this impressive open-plan space, while a separate utility room and cloakroom/W.C. provide everyday practicality.

To the first floor are four generously proportioned bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with en-suite facilities, together with a stylish family bathroom. Further features include quality uPVC double glazing and gas-fired central heating, with underfloor heating throughout the ground floor and radiators to the first floor.

Tucked away at the end of the private driveway with no passing traffic, the property enjoys an attractive and secluded position. A turning area and dedicated side driveway provide access to a detached garage, while the landscaped rear garden benefits from a desirable westerly aspect.
