INTRODUCTION

Standing in one of Cottingham's most desirable locations is this truly unique and impressive traditional detached house. With stunning rear gardens, this is certainly a "stand out" property which is waiting for its next loving owner. Set well back from the road with mature borders providing much privacy, there is plenty of parking in addition to the garage. Overall the plot measure approx. a third of a acre and the rear garden is an absolute delight, as seen on the attached photography. Built in the 1930's, the house itself exudes great character with many period features retained. Whilst the property has been previously extended there is certainly further scope for remodelling/extension (subject to appropriate permissions) due to the side of plot and its location. The accommodation is depicted on the attached floorplan and briefly comprises a beautiful oak panelled entrance hallway, formal lounge, a great sized living room to the rear with access out to the gardens, fitted breakfast kitchen, large utility and downstairs shower room. Upon the first floor are three double bedrooms served by a bathroom and indeed bed 1 has the benefit of a bath and wash hand basin within. It must be noted that there is a sizeable loft which is ripe for conversion. In all, a fine property of which early viewing is strongly recommended.

LOCATION

Recognised as the largest village in England, Cottingham offers an outstanding range of amenities, many centred around its thriving village centre. Here, a variety of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and traditional pubs create a vibrant yet welcoming community atmosphere. The village also benefits from excellent schooling, recreational facilities and attractive green spaces, making it particularly popular with families.

Cottingham's own railway station provides convenient connections to both Hull and Beverley, ensuring excellent commuter links while retaining a distinct village charm. The village centre is within comfortable walking distance, while the historic market town of Beverley lies approximately five miles to the north.

The nearby city of Kingston upon Hull, renowned for its cultural and leisure attractions, is also easily accessible. In addition, the location offers immediate access to beautiful surrounding countryside, including The Wolds Way and notable local landmarks such as Skidby Mill — perfect for those who enjoy outdoor pursuits and scenic surroundings.
