INTRODUCTION

A really unique and very deceptive semi detached house offering excellent accommodation with a variety of configurations possible, you cannot help to be impressed by the appeal and size of this individual home. The current layout is depicted on the attached floorplan and could be altered in several ways. The main bedroom measures approximately 21'0" x 8'9" and was originally designed being 2 bedrooms which could be restored quite easily by an incoming purchaser. The second floor loft room is ideal as a sitting room or large bedroom. The property occupies a corner style plot at the junction of Denmark Rise and has hard landscaped areas to side and rear of the house together with a driveway providing access to a single garage. Viewing is certainly recommended to appreciate the appeal of this lovely home.

LOCATION

The property is located along the picturesque street scene of Church Street where a number of period properties and homes of distinction are to be found. The immediate street scene is the quieter end of the street being towards Blanchards Lane and a running trout stream. This sought after village lies at the foot of the Yorkshire Wolds and retains a real village feel with a sense of community. The village has its own preschool and primary school and currently falls within the catchment area for the highly regarded South Hunsley School for which there is a bus service. It also retains a local shop, post office, and pub, village trust recreation and sports club, canoe, subaqua and indoor bowls club and the well renowned William's Den, all helping to make North Cave a friendly place to live. For the wildlife lover, North Cave wetlands, a Yorkshire wildlife trust reserve lies nearby and is home to an array of birds of regional importance. Minutes from local shops and beautiful countryside this is ideal for walking, riding, cycling and exploring picturesque villages. Ideally situated for the commuter with junction 34 of the A63/M62 motorway network located approximately 1 mile to the south and a mainline station at Brough is approximately 10 minutes driving time away thus the village provides good links both locally and nationally. The city of Hull's renaissance is illustrated by The Deep - a world renowned oceanographic discovery centre and culture includes a fabulous museum quarter together with Hull new theatre and Hull Truck which regularly features musicals, opera, ballet, drama and pantomimes. The historic town of Beverley lies approximately 20 minutes driving distance known for its westwood, impressive minster and historic market place.
