INTRODUCTION

NO CHAIN! Simply stunning and ready to welcome its next owners, this picture-postcard former farmhouse is rich in history and character while offering the luxuries of modern living. Believed to date back to the 1700s and originally forming part of the Dalton Estate, this beautifully appointed home is in excellent condition having been lovingly maintained and sympathetically enhanced over the years, with the standout feature the magnificent open-plan living kitchen complete with a log-burning stove. Occupying an idyllic position in the charming village of Lockington, in the heart of the Yorkshire Wolds, the property enjoys beautiful countryside surroundings whilst being just seven miles north-east of Beverley.

The accommodation, as shown on the attached floorplan, seamlessly combines original character features, including exposed beams, with contemporary living space. It briefly comprises a cosy sitting room, formal dining room, utility/study, boot room and W.C. The stunning bespoke kitchen, handcrafted by renowned cabinet maker John Mason, forms the heart of the home and opens into a superb living area enjoying delightful views across the garden and surrounding countryside beyond. Bi-fold doors lead directly onto the terrace, creating an ideal space for both everyday living and entertaining. To the first floor are two generous double bedrooms, together with a third bedroom currently arranged as a dressing room with a wall of fitted wardrobes. A family bathroom and separate shower room provide excellent flexibility for family living or visiting guests. The property benefits from LPG gas central heating and high-quality heritage-style double glazing throughout. Having enjoyed many happy years here, the current owners are embarking on their next chapter by converting neighbouring former outbuildings into their new home. Upon completion, both properties will be accessed via an automated gated entrance, with this property enjoying a private block-paved parking area for two vehicles. The attractive rear garden combines a paved terrace with a well-maintained lawn, enjoying a wonderful outlook across adjoining pastureland.

LOCATION

Situated north east of Beverley, Lockington is an idyllic English village nestled in the heart of the Yorkshire Wolds. Its appeal is underscored by being a conservation area village with a charming stream, beautiful church and stunning surrounding countryside. It has a strong sense of community with regular events and activities and is ideal for a family with its well regarded primary school. Whilst there is no pub in the village, it is handily placed for the some of the areas best pubs and eateries including the Michelin starred Pipe & Glass at South Dalton and the superb Wellington Inn at Lund. Lockington is a tranquil location situated between the A164 Beverley to Driffield road and the B1248 Beverley to Malton road. it is ideal for the outdoors lover with access to bridleways and footpaths, beautiful countryside and the Minster Way crosses the pasture land to the rear.

Beverley approx. 7.5 miles,
Driffield approx. 8.5 miles,
Market Weighton approx. 12 miles,
York approx 30 miles.
