A HOME DESIGNED AROUND YOU

YOUR HOME. YOUR VISION. YOUR LIFESTYLE

The approved scheme provides an impressive starting point, but purchasers are not necessarily restricted to the internal arrangement illustrated. Working with Markech Properties Limited and also the renowned local architect Innovation Design Limited of Hessle, East Yorkshire, buyers can explore their preferred size, accommodation and level of specification.
Possible features include a spectacular living kitchen, formal entertaining rooms, luxurious bedroom suites, home office, cinema, gymnasium, leisure accommodation and generous garaging.

QUALITY AND CRAFTSMAN

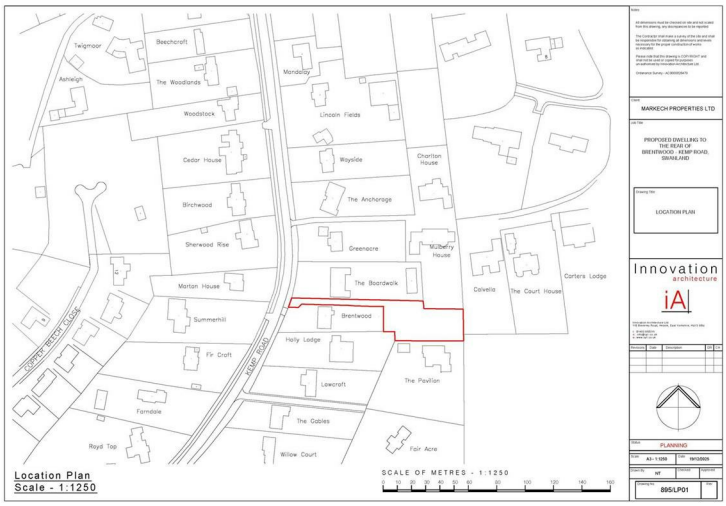

Silver Birches will be developed by Markech Properties Limited, with purchasers able to work alongside the professional design team. The emphasis will be on quality construction, thoughtful design and a carefully agreed specification appropriate to this prestigious location. Purchasers can discuss kitchen design, bathrooms, flooring, finishes, heating and lighting, with agreed selections incorporated into the detailed construction specification. Modern energy efficiency and comfort will be important considerations.

A WONDERFUL PRIVATE SETTING

Approached from Kemp Road via a private driveway, the site enjoys a secluded position away from the immediate street scene. The overall grounds extend to just over half an acre, including the driveway, offering scope for landscaped gardens, parking and outdoor entertaining areas, subject to the agreed design.

LOCATION

Swanland is one of East Yorkshire's most sought-after residential villages, known for its attractive surroundings, established character and convenient location at the foot of the Yorkshire Wolds.

THE DEIGN AND BUILD OPPORTUNITY

Silver Birches is offered through a proposed arrangement comprising two distinct elements: the purchase of the freehold land and a separately agreed construction contract for the purchaser's bespoke home.
The final price, scope of works, specification, payment schedule and contractual terms will be agreed between the parties at the outset.

AN OPPORTUNITY NOT TO BE MISSED

Opportunities to create a substantial, individually designed home in such an established and prestigious location are exceptionally rare. Silver Birches combines a superb residential address with the freedom to influence your future home.
