LOCATION

Little Weighton is a hidden gem of the East Riding, nestled in an elevated position within the rolling landscape of the Yorkshire Wolds. As one of the more secluded villages in the region, characterised by its close-knit community, it provides a peaceful and secure residential setting that is highly prized by those seeking a rural retreat without feeling isolated from nearby hubs.

In the centre of the village is the popular Black Horse public house, a traditional village inn known for its warm welcome and local character. While the village preserves a tranquil pace, more extensive retail, and leisure facilities—including major supermarkets and independent shops—are easily accessible in the neighbouring villages of Cottingham and Willerby, which are just a short drive away.

The village is home to a highly regarded primary school and falls within the catchment for the well-respected Cottingham High School and Sixth Form College. Furthermore, additional independent schooling options are within easy reach, ensuring a high-quality educational journey for local students.

Little Weighton provides good regional connectivity for those who value a tranquil setting without sacrificing accessibility. The village is well-positioned for commuters, with easy access to the A164 to Beverley or Hessle and the A63/M62 corridor. For rail travel, the nearby station at Cottingham offers frequent services to Hull, Beverley, and York.

Accessibility to key destinations includes:

- Cottingham: Approx. 4 miles
- Beverley: Approx. 7 miles
- Hull City Centre: Approx. 9 miles
- York: Approx. 31 miles

Beyond the immediate vicinity, the village serves as a direct gateway to some of the most stunning walking and cycling trails in the county, including scenic routes through Nut Wood and Raywell. This blend of quintessential village charm and modern accessibility truly encapsulates the best of East Yorkshire life.
