INTRODUCTION

Originally built by Hedlunds Swedish Houses and significantly modernised by the current owners, this stunning detached residence brings high-performance Scandinavian design to an exclusive Swanland setting. Occupying a private plot of approximately a quarter of an acre, the home was designed with energy efficiency at its core, featuring superior insulation and triple glazing throughout.

The light-filled interior is both spacious and versatile, featuring a 25ft lounge with a feature log burner and a contemporary dining kitchen with premium integrated appliances. The ground floor further provides a utility room and a flexible sitting room/fourth bedroom situated adjacent to a modern shower room. The first floor hosts three double bedrooms and a luxury family bathroom, complete with a traditional Scandinavian sauna—the ultimate wellness feature.

Externally, a gravelled driveway provides extensive parking and leads to a detached double garage. The south-westerly gardens offer a sun-drenched sanctuary, featuring mature trees, rockery areas, and expansive lawns that wrap around the property.

LOCATION

Hall Park is an exclusive and a particularly attractive cul-de-sac situated to the eastern fringe of the village off Tranby Lane. Swanland is widely regarded as one of the most prestigious and picturesque villages in the East Riding of Yorkshire. Situated on the edge of the Yorkshire Wolds, it offers a refined residential atmosphere around a quintessentially English village pond. Alongside the nearby villages of North Ferriby and Kirk Ella, Swanland remains one of the most desirable addresses for discerning homeowners in the region.

The village maintains a charming feel while providing easy access to high-end local services. Residents benefit from a range of amenities, including a traditional village pub serving food, a chemist, and convenience store with a post office. For more extensive retail needs, the nearby Anlaby Retail Park and Willerby shopping park are just a short drive away. The community-centric village hosts numerous events, contributing to the vibrant social fabric that defines local life. There is also a tennis and bowls club plus a recreational park with children's play area.

A significant advantage for families is the proximity to top-tier education. The village is home to the outstanding Swanland Primary School, consistently recognized for its academic excellence. For secondary education, the village falls within the catchment for the highly regarded South Hunsley School and Sixth Form College. Prestigious independent options, including Hymers College, Tranby, and Pocklington School, are also within easy reach.

Swanland provides superb regional connectivity for those who value a tranquil setting with quick access to the A63, which connects directly to the M62 motorway network and Hull city centre. For rail travel, the nearby stations at North Ferriby and Brough provides services to Hull, Leeds, and beyond, ensuring excellent links for commuters.

Accessibility to key destinations includes:

- Hull City Centre: Approx. 7 miles
- Beverley (Historic Market Town): Approx. 10 miles
- York: Approx. 34 miles
- Leeds: Approx. 54 miles

Beyond the immediate vicinity, the location offers unparalleled access to the beauty of the East Riding countryside. The nearby Yorkshire Wolds present a stunning landscape of peaceful walking trails and traditional villages. This area is perfect for outdoor enthusiasts, offering easy exploration of the coast, including the dramatic clifftops and sandy beaches. The thriving market town of Beverley is nearby with the attraction of York still convenient yet a little more distant.
