INTRODUCTION

Beautifully reimagined for contemporary family living, this exceptional detached home offers a superb balance of style, space and practicality. The standout feature is the outstanding open-plan living environment, where the dining kitchen flows effortlessly into the family sitting area, creating a spectacular space designed for both everyday life and entertaining.

Thoughtfully planned to meet the demands of modern living, the ground floor also features a playroom opening directly from the kitchen, allowing younger children to remain within sight, together with a separate study/fifth bedroom, gym, utility room and an elegant oak staircase with contemporary glass balustrading.

Upstairs, four generous bedrooms provide excellent family accommodation, including a fantastic principal bedroom suite with fitted wardrobes and en-suite shower room. A beautifully appointed family bathroom with elegant gold fittings completes the first floor.

Outside, the generous plot is equally impressive, with an elevated frontage, ample driveway parking, a double garage and beautifully maintained gardens that enhance the sense of space whilst providing dedicated areas for both entertaining and family life.

LOCATION

Todds Close is an exclusive and most desirable cul-de-sac situated off Tranby Lane on the eastern fringe of the village. Swanland is widely regarded as one of the most prestigious and picturesque villages in the East Riding of Yorkshire. Situated on the edge of the Yorkshire Wolds, it offers a refined residential atmosphere around a quintessentially English village pond. Alongside the nearby villages of North Ferriby and Kirk Ella, Swanland remains one of the most desirable addresses for discerning homeowners in the region.

The village maintains a charming feel while providing easy access to high-end local services. Residents benefit from a range of amenities, including a traditional village pub serving food, a chemist, and convenience store with a post office. For more extensive retail needs, the nearby Anlaby Retail Park and Willerby shopping park are just a short drive away. The community-centric village hosts numerous events, contributing to the vibrant social fabric that defines local life. There is also a tennis and bowls club plus a recreational park with children's play area.

A significant advantage for families is the proximity to top-tier education. The village is home to the outstanding Swanland Primary School, consistently recognized for its academic excellence. For secondary education, the village falls within the catchment for the highly regarded South Hunsley School and Sixth Form College. Prestigious independent options, including Hymers College, Tranby, and Pocklington School, are also within easy reach.

Swanland provides superb regional connectivity for those who value a tranquil setting with quick access to the A63, which connects directly to the M62 motorway network and Hull city centre. For rail travel, the nearby stations at North Ferriby and Brough provides services to Hull, Leeds, and beyond, ensuring excellent links for commuters.

Accessibility to key destinations includes:

- Hull City Centre: Approx. 7 miles
- Beverley (Historic Market Town): Approx. 10 miles
- York: Approx. 34 miles
- Leeds: Approx. 54 miles

Beyond the immediate vicinity, the location offers unparalleled access to the beauty of the East Riding countryside. The nearby Yorkshire Wolds present a stunning landscape of peaceful walking trails and traditional villages. This area is perfect for outdoor enthusiasts, offering easy exploration of the coast, including the dramatic clifftops and sandy beaches. The thriving market town of Beverley is nearby with the attraction of York still convenient yet a little more distant.
