CHARMING TWO-BEDROOM VICTORIAN
END-TERRACED HOME
£180,000 - £190,000 GUIDE PRICE

£180,000 Freehold

Located just a stone's throw from Arnold High Street, this beautifully presented two-bedroom Victorian end-terrace, with added benefit of a versatile loft room perfectly balances period charm with stylish modern living. Ideally positioned for easy access to a range of local amenities including shops, schools, doctors, and playing fields, the property also benefits from excellent transport links into Nottingham city centre, with frequent bus services and easy road access making it ideal for commuters.

The property is set behind a small, well-maintained front garden and opens into a welcoming first reception room, currently used as a living space. This room has been thoughtfully decorated with recently laid herringbone-style flooring, contemporary wooden shutters on modern double-glazed windows, and benefits from high ceilings, a chimney breast with a functioning fireplace, and other retained Victorian features including ornate skirting.

An open archway leads through to the second reception room, which serves as a dining and music space. Like the front room, it features a working fireplace, chimney breast, and the same elegant period detailing, while a large rear window offers a view through the rear extension and out to the garden. From here, the layout flows into a galley-style kitchen which is bright and functional, complete with an integrated oven, gas hob, fridge/freezer, and housing for the boiler. There are two additional windows allowing in plenty of natural light, and a rear door providing access to the garden. A further door leads into a small conservatory-style extension currently used as a utility room, offering valuable additional space.

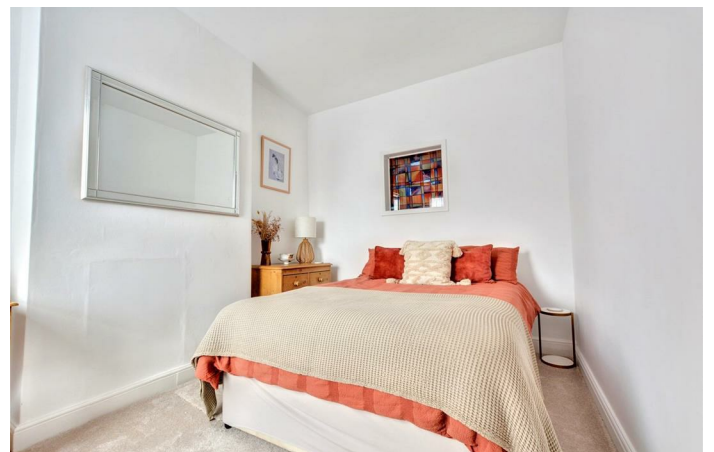

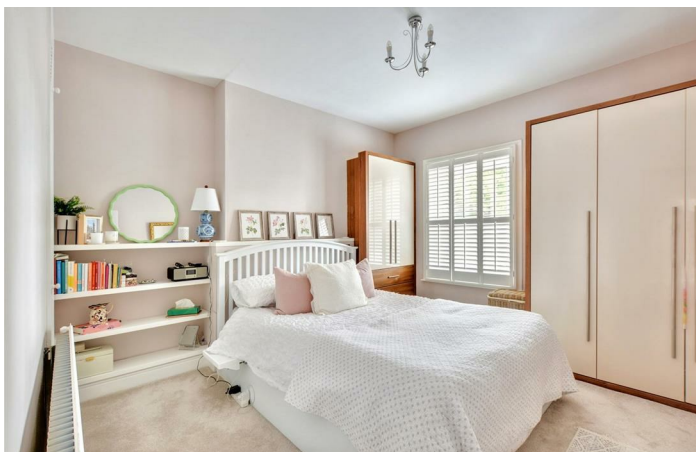

The rear garden has been landscaped to a high standard, offering a combination of patio and lawn areas, perfect for outdoor entertaining or quiet relaxation. The garden enjoys a sunny aspect, particularly in the evening, and has been very well maintained.

Beneath the property, a good-sized cellar in excellent condition offers practical storage or potential for future use, subject to any necessary consents.

Upstairs, a newly carpeted staircase leads to a spacious first floor, where two well-proportioned double bedrooms are found. The master bedroom benefits from built-in storage with contemporary wooden shutters and both rooms enjoy modern electrical fittings, new carpets, and continue the theme of high ceilings and period character seen throughout the home. The family bathroom is located off the main landing and is immaculately presented, featuring a three-piece suite including a bath with shower over, wash basin and WC.

Accessed via a loft hatch and fitted ladder, the converted loft room is a particularly versatile space. With fitted carpets, a Velux window, spotlighting and electricity, it offers the potential for use as a third bedroom, home office or creative space.

Offered to the market with no upward chain, this delightful home is ready for immediate occupation. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the character, space and location on offer.
