GATED THREE BEDROOM END TERRACE
WITH VICTORIAN CHARM

Guide Price £210,000 Freehold

Tucked away on a private end plot within the gated Foljambe Terrace, this property offers a rare sense of privacy and security.

Despite being just a stone's throw from the Lace Market in Nottingham city centre, it enjoys a peaceful setting behind a private gated entrance serving this small cluster of homes. As you enter, the tree-lined front gardens create an immediate sense of charm and welcome, while the secure surroundings foster a strong feeling of safety and a genuine community atmosphere among neighbouring residents, many of whom are first-time buyers.

Boasting a desirable position adjacent to Victoria Park, the property enjoys peaceful green views while remaining within easy reach of excellent transport links and the vibrant Sneinton Market, renowned for its independent food and drink scene. The River Trent and nearby canals are also just a short walk away, perfect for weekend strolls.

Externally, the home benefits from a delightful front garden with decking, ideal for relaxing or entertaining, as well as a low-maintenance rear courtyard garden with convenient rear access. Further enhancing the property, a brand new roof was fitted in 2025, along with the chimney stack being repointed, offering peace of mind for years to come.

Internally, the property is finished to a high standard throughout, with all windows and doors fitted with UPVC double glazing. Brand new Karndean LVT flooring, laid in 2025, runs throughout the ground floor, adding a stylish and durable finish.

You are welcomed through the front door into a bright and inviting lounge, featuring large windows that flood the space with natural light and a wall-mounted television for modern living.

To the rear, the property opens into a spacious open-plan dining and kitchen area, thoughtfully designed with fitted units, ample dining space, and direct access to the rear garden, creating a perfect hub for both everyday living and entertaining. From here, access is also provided to a useful cellar, offering excellent additional storage space.

Stairs lead from this space to the first floor, where you will find a generously sized double bedroom and a large single bedroom, currently used as a home office. A well-appointed three-piece family bathroom completes this level.

Occupying the entire second floor is the impressive principal bedroom, a large double room with dual aspect windows, including dormer and Velux styles. This versatile space also offers eaves storage and ample room for a sleeping area, dressing space, and even a study nook if desired.

Combining characterful Victorian features with a prime yet peaceful location, this exceptional home is ideal for buyers seeking style, space, and convenience.
