This three-bedroom detached bungalow occupies a corner plot position with gardens to all sides and is conveniently located for amenities within the Salendine Nook Shopping Centre. The accommodation comprises an entrance porch, hallway, good-sized living room, kitchen and separate dining/sitting room/bedroom four. On the first floor, there are three bedrooms and a bathroom. The interior requires a certain amount of cosmetic rejuvenation, but offers great potential to redesign and upgrade if deemed necessary. The property benefits from gas-fired central heating, uPVC double-glazing and a security system. Externally, the property has a driveway with parking for two cars and an attached extended garage with integral workshop. There is a patio area as well as lawned gardens to all sides and two useful timber sheds. The property is offered with the advantage of vacant possession.

Details

Entrance Porch

An external uPVC door with glazed panels gives access into the entrance porch, which has uPVC windows overlooking the side garden. From here, a timber door leads into the hallway.

Hallway

The L-shaped hallway has a useful storage cupboard, and a hanging rail. The hallway has a light point, access to loft space and a radiator. A door leads into the living room.

Living Room

This good-sized reception room is positioned at the front of the property, with a bank of uPVC windows overlooking the frontage. It has plenty of space for furniture, coving to the ceiling and a radiator.

Rear Lobby

The lobby has a wide archway on the left-hand side leading to the kitchen.

Kitchen

The kitchen has wall cupboards and base units with working surfaces and a one-and-a-half bowl sink with a mixer tap. There is space for a freestanding cooker, dishwasher and a further freestanding appliance, along with plumbing for an automatic washing machine. The boiler for the central heating system is housed in this area. There is a rear uPVC window. From here, a door leads into a dining/sitting room.

Dining/Sitting Room

This multipurpose room is an extension to the original design and could be used as an additional bedroom or a formal dining/sitting room, etc. It is particularly light and bright with a large uPVC window, with views towards the National Park and Scapegoat Hill. There is plenty of space for furniture, a gas fire on a raised hearth, coving to the ceiling and two radiators.
