Lindley Moor Road, Mount
Huddersfield,

Offers in the region of £400,000

This substantially extended, formally four but now three bedroom semi-detached home occupies a generous plot with a southerly aspect to the rear. It has a high specification interior and a stunning open-plan living/dining kitchen with bi-folding doors leading to a lovely patio. The property is located within a well-regarded area with ease of access to local amenities including recommended schooling and the M62 motorway network. It has a gas-fired central heating system, a Smart thermostat, double-glazing throughout and a comprehensive security system. The accommodation comprises an entrance porch, inner entrance hallway, living room, rear open-plan living/dining kitchen with island unit and wood burning stove, utility, two bedrooms and shower room. On the first floor, there is a large master bedroom with built-in furniture and useful storage, and a bathroom. Externally, there are recently fitted composite gates and extensive parking, a large detached brick-built garage, and front and rear gardens with a large patio/terrace adjoining the bi-fold doors in the living/dining kitchen. Only by an internal inspection can the accommodation, presentation and gardens be truly appreciated. There is lapsed planning permission for a single story extension to the rear of the garage to form a garden room. Planning application number 2020/EB/00999/W. The property benefits from some recently fitted windows and doors and no upper chain.

Entrance Porch

A uPVC entrance door with a large opaque glazed panel and matching side screens gives access to the entrance porch. It has oak style laminate flooring and provides a useful storage area for coats and shoes. A uPVC glazed door opens to the entrance hallway.

Entrance Hallway

The spacious hallway has superb oak internal joinery and a feature staircase with oak and glazed panels, a stylish upright radiator and ceiling downlighting throughout. The staircase incorporates LED, coloured mood lighting and gives access to the first floor accommodation.

Living Room

From the entrance, a timber door gives access to the good-sized living room, which is positioned at the front of the property, with a large uPVC double-glazed window overlooking the front garden. It has a multi-fuel stove set to the chimney breast upon a raised hearth, with a brick style tiled inlay. The room has wall light points, internal oak joinery, a stylish upright radiator and a door leading into the living/dining kitchen.

Living/Dining Kitchen

This open-plan eating and entertaining space certainly has the wow factor, positioned at the rear of the property, enjoying a southerly aspect. The kitchen has a range of wall and base cupboards, drawers, roll-edge worktops with matching upstands. Integrated appliances include a double oven and a five-ring induction hob with overlying canopy filter hood. There is a central island unit with lighting above and base cupboards for extra storage, an inset stainless steel sink unit with extendable hose style tap, and space for a freestanding American style fridge freezer. The room can easily accommodate a formal dining table. The adjoining living area has a glazed door multi-fuel stove on a stone flagged hearth. At the far end, there is a set of five-panel bi-fold doors, providing access to a large terrace. There is provision for a wall-mounted TV, two upright radiators and oak style laminate flooring that continues into the utility room.
