Royles Head Lane, Longwood Huddersfield,

Offers in the region of £325,000

Set in a truly idyllic location sits this three-bedroom semi-detached, forever home. Nestled between far reaching views of open countryside to one side and several listed and historically important buildings to the other. Newly refurbished to the highest standard, this home offers generous sized rooms and a flexible layout – a viewing is recommended. The property is positioned on the edge of the village in a hamlet style setting yet offers the convenience of the local amenities in the nearby Salendine Nook shopping centre and would be a perfect commuting base with access to the M62. The accommodation comprises an entrance hallway, downstairs WC, breakfast kitchen with adjoining dining room, small utility, rear sitting room with patio doors and a large ground floor bedroom, which could be utilised as an additional living room. On the first floor are two large bedrooms and a spacious bathroom. The property has a gas-fired central heating system and uPVC double-glazing (apart from the garage windows). Externally, there are mature gardens at the front, parking on the block-paved driveway and a good-sized attached garage. The rear garden enjoys a southerly aspect, with a large patio, green house, large lawn and a vegetable garden. The property has the advantage of no chain involvement.

Breakfast Kitchen

This open plan room works particularly well combining kitchen, dining and living whilst also flowing out to the patio and back garden. Ideal for everything from a lazy Sunday to entertaining guests. Of particular note is the oak flooring which continues throughout the open plan area. The kitchen has been recently updated and comprises wall cupboards and base unit, under unit lighting and worktops extending to create a breakfast bar. Integrated appliances include a dishwasher, induction hob, double fan electric oven and canopy style filter hood. There is space for a freestanding fridge and a ceramic one-and-a-half bowl sink. A uPVC window enjoys a pleasant outlook over the garden and chapel to the rear. There are feature tiled surrounds, an upright designer radiator and a uPVC glazed door leading into the attached garage.

Dining Room

The adjoining dining room has a radiator, a continuation of the oak flooring and can easily accommodate a formal dining table. A wide archway leads through to the living room.

External Details

In front of the property is a block paved driveway providing parking and access to the attached garage. On the left-hand side, there is a mature flowerbed and borders with sunflowers and shrubs. On the other side is a levelled lawned garden with mature flowerbeds. The rear garden benefits from a large lawn, perimeter fencing and has a full-width paved seating/dining area, which can be accessed from the patio doors or the external doors from the garage. A pathway leads by the lawn to steps at the back of the property – a shortcut to the village. To the side of the pathway is a vegetable patch and greenhouse. Through the greenhouse is a further seating area surrounded by wisteria and enjoying the best views of Parkwood Mill, the former Methodist chapel and right across Longwood, it's the perfect location for a tea break.

Garage

The large garage has an up-and-over door, rear and side single-glazed windows and a timber and glazed personal door to the front elevation. There is a radiator, a door through into the kitchen and a door out into the garden.
