Inside The Home

Entering the property via an enclosed porch, you are welcomed through a double uPVC door with decorative glazed side and top panels into a spacious and impressive entrance hallway. The hallway immediately sets the tone, featuring stylish wall panelling, contemporary radiator covers and a carpet runner leading up the staircase. The current owners have recently finished refreshing the space with a modern, neutral colour palette, further enhancing the bright and elegant feel. The staircase and landing continue the panelling detail, creating a cohesive and high-end finish throughout.

Downstairs, the front lounge is a standout feature and truly the heart of the home. It boasts elegant wall panelling, a striking fireplace filled with decor, an oak mantelpiece, alcoves, space for a large television and a beautiful front bay window fitted with shutter blinds. The absence of curtains allows the architectural features and natural light to shine, with a curved radiator adding to the charm. To the rear is a versatile playroom with patio doors opening directly onto the garden, ideal for family living, entertaining or supervising children at play. The kitchen opens seamlessly into the dining area, creating a sociable and functional space filled with natural light from multiple windows. A characterful brick archway, painted in a soft grey, adds charm while complementing the overall aesthetic of the home. There is also a separate boiler and tumble-dryer room with a window overlooking the garden, offering excellent potential to be transformed into a dedicated utility room. The dining room features ample space for a large table, and a door leading out to the garden. Adjacent to this is a further versatile room currently used as a study, benefiting from two windows and neutral décor it would be ideal as a home office, snug or man cave.

On the first floor, at the top of the stairs, a useful storage cupboard sits to the left, ideal as an airing cupboard or general household storage. The house was previously extended providing the home with a generous double bedroom, currently styled in soft olive and neutral tones. This room is exceptionally light, benefiting from four windows including a charming stained glass window in the centre of the room. To the right of the landing is a beautifully finished three-piece family bathroom, complete with a large bath, walk-in shower, and contemporary fittings. This is a sleek, modern space finished to a high standard. The principal bedroom is a spacious and serene retreat, offering extensive seven-door fitted wardrobes, space for additional shelving and room to comfortably accommodate a super king-size bed. Large double windows fill the room with natural light, complemented by a tasteful neutral décor. The second bedroom overlooks the front of this quiet residential avenue and features a stunning bay window with a curved radiator beneath. There is a fitted triple wardrobe within an alcove, as well as a delightful hidden cubbyhole, an ideal children's hideaway or play space. This is another well-proportioned double bedroom. The third bedroom on this floor is a single room, beautifully presented with soft décor, carpeted flooring and a window overlooking the front of the property ideal as a child's bedroom or nursery. The loft room is accessed via a wooden door leading to a staircase and offers a substantial additional space with a radiator, skylight and extensive eaves storage running along the left-hand side. The room itself is a generous double size, currently being used as a bedroom but it would also be ideal as an office or man cave/cinema room.
