

Inside The Home

Entered via a UPVC double glazed door, you are welcomed into a small Entrance Vestibule, presenting a beautiful stained glass period feature door. This proceeds into a spacious Entrance Hall with original mosaic tile flooring, coving to the ceiling and stunning Oak wooden original panelling, and the stairs leading to the first floor. Two original wooden doors provide access into a Living Room and separate Dining Room, with the Living Room benefitting from an open fire place, positioned centrally within the room. Stepping into the Dining Room, this beautiful room has a UPVC double glazed window and provides an outlook over the rear garden. Completing the ground floor of this characterful period home, a Kitchen can be found to the rear, which is fitted with a range of wall and base units, and houses a Valiant gas central heating boiler, which was installed in 2024. Although this room requires modernisation, there is ample scope to create a truly incredible modern kitchen, perfect for preparing delicious meals. An internal wooden door provides access to a large cellar room, perfect for further development, with a second wooden door providing access to the rear garden.

The first floor is accessed from the Entrance Hall by a truly remarkable original Oak wooden staircase, with breath-taking wooden panelling to compliment. A large built-in storage cupboard can be found, as well as access to two bedrooms, the family bathroom and the loft space. To the front of the property, a large double bedroom can be found with UPVC double glazed windows showcasing views towards the Forest of Bowland. The second Bedroom provides buyers with an open outlook towards the Lancashire countryside via a large UPVC double glazed window, with exposed wooden flooring. To the rear of the home, a three-piece bathroom suite can be found with a WC, a wash handbasin and bath with beautifully exposed stone wall feature, showcasing this beautiful homes character.

As other nearby properties have done, subject to the necessary permissions, the loft would provide potential for further development.

Offered to the market with No Chain, this stunning home is packed full of character and charm.

Let's Take A Closer Look At The Area

Located in the popular village of Halton on the banks of the scenic River Lune, this wonderful family home sits at the gateway of the stunning Lune Valley.
