

The accommodation

Accessible from the front elevation an entrance porch awaits, leading you into a welcoming entrance hallway. The lounge is spacious and well appointed with a feature reclaimed cast iron fireplace as its centerpiece and beyond that the second reception room offers versatile space for dining and several other purposes. The contemporary kitchen boasts a range of wall and base units with laminate work top surfaces, a single sink and drainer and an electric oven with a gas hob and overhead extractor. The boiler is hosted here and that has been newly installed. On the first floor are two very well proportioned bedrooms and a sleek four piece family bathroom with a walk in shower, a panel bath, a low flush WC and a vanity wash hand basin. Additionally the basement has good head height and is the site for the gas meter and the electricity consumer unit.

Let's take a look outside.

This wonderful home has gated courtyard frontage and a larger than average concrete based rear yard with an open stone bin store and gated access.
