Let's Take A Closer Look At The Area

Close to Heysham Village is steeped in history. Nearby Heysham Head is a sandstone coastal headland most notable for harbouring the ruins of St Patrick's Chapel. The beautiful St Peter's Church stands close by too, its churchyard commanding one of the best views in the country across the Bay. Next door is the small, peaceful relaxing Glebe Garden. The village has a number of popular cafe's as well as the popular Royal Pub, a popular cricket club and is close to schools, a health centre, a large co-op and the village post office. Access to junction 34 of the M6 is easy via the Bay Gateway meaning this could be the perfect retreat for the working professional and the Gateway can get you easily on track for a trip into the Trough of Bowland, the Lune Valley or the farther afield Lake District or Yorkshire Dales. Heysham really does have one of the best sunsets in the country and it is right on your doorstep.
