

Inside The Home

Situated within a sought-after residential area, this well-presented two-bedroom semi-detached bungalow offers spacious and versatile accommodation, ideally suited to downsizers, retirees, or those seeking single-level living. Entry is gained via double uPVC front doors into a welcoming entrance hallway. To the left, the generously proportioned lounge enjoys a large front-facing window, allowing an abundance of natural light to fill the room. The lounge also benefits from attractive wooden flooring and a feature gas fireplace, creating a warm and inviting living space. The master bedroom is positioned to the front of the property and is a spacious double room with a large window overlooking the front aspect. Bedroom two is also a comfortable double bedroom, located to the rear of the property. The shower room has been modernised and thoughtfully adapted for accessibility, featuring a contemporary walk-in shower in place of the original bath, along with modern fixtures and fittings. The kitchen offers a bright and practical space, fitted with an integrated electric oven and gas hob, together with ample room for additional white goods. A door from the kitchen leads directly into the sun room. A particular feature of the property is the spacious sun room, currently utilised as a dining area. Benefiting from an abundance of natural light, this versatile space provides an excellent extension to the living accommodation and enjoys pleasant views over the rear garden.

The property has been well maintained by the current owner and benefits from a number of improvements, including replacement uPVC windows to selected areas of the home. The Worcester gas combination boiler is less than ten years old and has been serviced annually, providing buyers with added peace of mind.
