

Inside The Home

Entry is through a beautiful wooden door, into a welcoming hallway, you'll immediately notice how well presented this property is. There are two reception rooms on the ground floor, the lounge features a box bay window filling the room with natural light, a fire and there is an open arch way leading into a spacious dining room. The kitchen to the rear is a little dated but functional, there is also a handy cellar for storage.

To the first floor you will find two bedrooms, both being generous in size allowing space for double beds. The property was previously a three bedroom property however the owner changed the configuration and built a separate shower room to the bathroom as it suited their needs. There is potential for future buyers to convert the property back to a three bed if they so wished.
