Description

Entering the spacious hallway, you have stairs rising to the first floor with a useful storage cupboard under. There are doors into the sitting room, kitchen and a door into the two receptions at the rear of the property. The sitting room is a good size and overlooks the front of the property and has potential to be used as a further bedroom, whilst to the rear you will find a bright and spacious living room which is open plan to a separate dining room. There are French doors from both the living room and the dining room which open onto the garden, plus a further door into the garden to the side. The kitchen has been fitted with a range of wood effect wall and base units with granite work surface over which provide ample storage, in addition to two built-in storage cupboards. There is ample space for free standing appliances, and an extractor hood above the cooker space. A peninsular breakfast bar has seating for two.

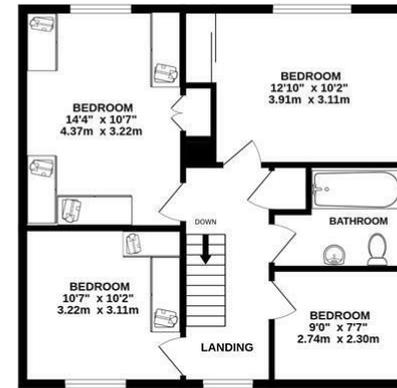

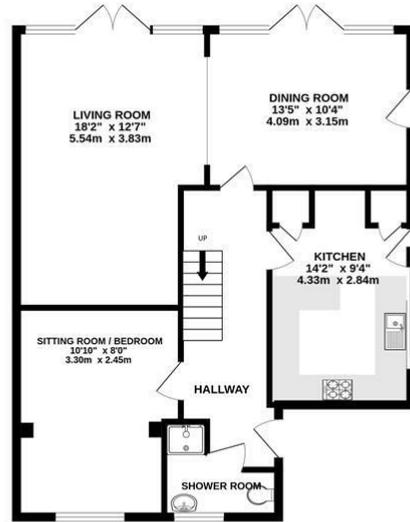

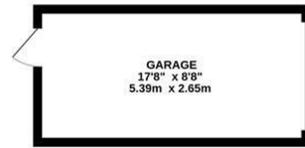

Rising to the first floor you will find four good-sized bedrooms; with three of the bedrooms having either built-in and/or fitted storage options. The family bathroom is also of a good-size and comprises of a jacuzzi bath with shower over, and a wash hand basin and w.c. set into a fitted unit. The landing space has a built-in airing/storage cupboard and access into the loft space.

As previously mentioned, the property sits on a large corner plot with gardens to the rear and to the side, with the garden space to the side of the property offering excellent potential for extension (stpp). Accessible from Luthers Close is a single garage with pedestrian door back into the garden and there is additional parking in front of the garage. The front garden is laid to neat lawn.
